Education

Every child deserves the right to good food & education.

405 million school children

That's the number of school children that may drop out worldwide (3rd year of pandemic). They also lost 2 trillion hours of learning in a classroom environment.

Stats in India

India's lockdown in 2020 impacted 247 million children enrolled in 1.5 million schools.

Children have to get back to school to ensure they get their basics of schooling. Basic reading and numeracy skills serve as building blocks of the future.

Let's bring them back to school

To move them a step towards learning foundational skills, The Ekatvabharat Foundation feeds them nutritious meals that they look forward to every single day.

By bringing them to school everyday, you benefit them in the following ways:

Socialization – they learn how to make friends & socialise with others

Physical well being – they become healthier by eating nutritional food

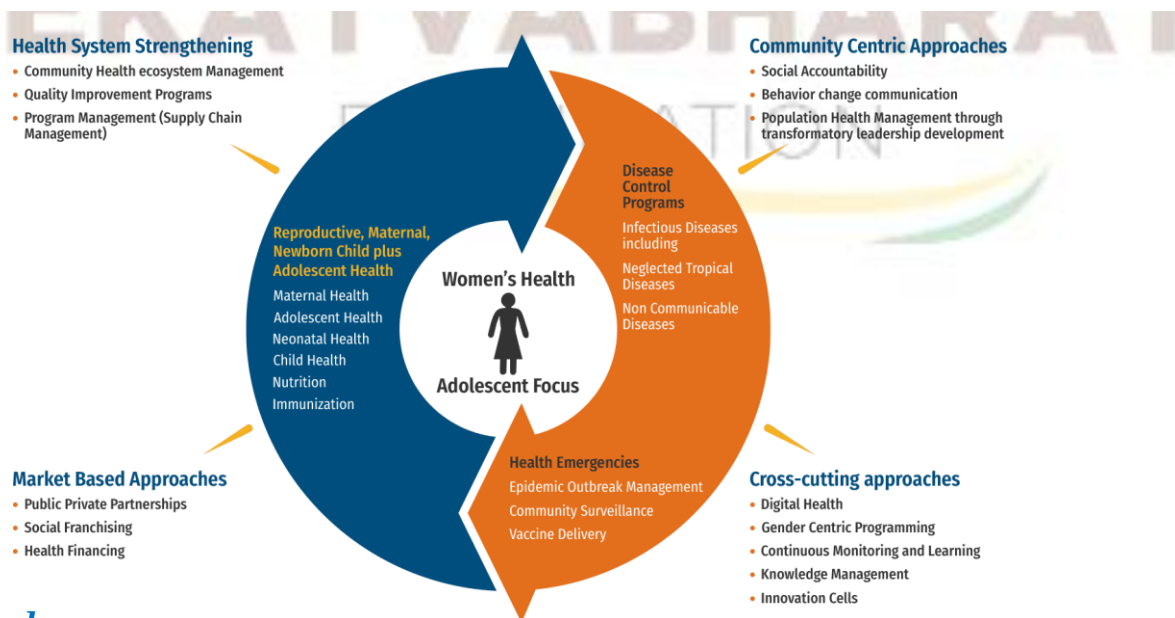

Cognitive growth – helps in processes of thinking & reasoning

Your support can

- Bring 1.8 million and many more children to school to continue their education
- Bring children closer to their dreams by emphasizing on the importance of studies
- Make more memories of having a school life with friends and teachers
- Give access to nutritious midday meals on a daily basis, through the academic year
- Instil confidence in children that they can become independent in their future
- Make them regular to school so that they can learn something new every day
